1st off i'd like to mention, that *THIS* isn't a competition on how many members there are on each support site, neither is there going to be a decision as to which Brasil support site gets official status, as far as what was discussed, *BOTH* will get the official status..

the 1 thing that might sway that decision is if there continues to be any fighting or whatever between you on the xoops.org forums!!!

sorry mikhail if your post wasn't meant like that, but quoting Giba's post and then highlighting your sites members and finishing with a seemed like you were trying to make a point..

Quoting Giba again:

http://www.xoops.org/modules/newbb/viewtopic.php?viewmode=flat&topic\_id=22074&forum=20

And quoting the XOOPS Official Local Support Site Guidelines:

"a) The top page should include current news, information and recent forum post accessible by anonymous users. Registration can be required for posting, but the information should remain registration free."

"7. Official Local Support Sites will not charge a fee for support (or extra support). Donations are fine,

the support is a community effort and should remain free to all users. There shall be no penalties or reduced access to information for non donating members."
