Since things seem to be spreading out and the community is being shifted from from xoops.org I am hoping to put together a site that allows us to keep in contact.

http://www.xoops.net.br/index.php?tit ... opswiki2:Community_Portal << check in and leave

Thanks for you comments BlueStocking. However by advertising yet another "Xoops" website, it is furthering the fragmentation of XOOPS community, members, etc.

Why not post HERE? Lets fix XOOPS first.

BTW, I am formulating thoughts on Vision Statement and Mission Statements....I'd be interested to see what you and others are thinking.
